This was a photo from one of our visits with Mary Margaret and Ruth Opferman. We had some special visits talking about our shared family history and learning about my Great Grandparents. RIP.

Mary Margaret was one of my Mom's first cousins. We got to know her from our genealogy research since she was one of Uncle Henny's daughters, descended from my Great Grandfather's first wife, Louisa Averbek. I learned from Mary Margaret about my Grandmother Maria Heggen being a nanny for several years for Joseph Opferman before they married. RIP!

My mother, Kay Shauck, worked with Mary at the library in Bethel Park for years. Over time they became good friends and they enjoyed working together. I did some story hours at the library when I was a teenager and I got to know Mary also. She was a blessing to so many people.
