I will always remember all of the fun family times with you, Uncle Fritz, and your mother Aunt Helen. Although cousins, you were actually the best "big sister" to my dad, Harry Patterson. Rest in peace, dear Alice.

Dearest Alice, Thank you for making this world a better place. I always felt love, comfort, acceptance and joy in your presence...even on the phone ;-). Thank you for being Dad's "older sister" and for brightening up his life. Thank you for all the happy memories, with Aunt Helen and Fritz, playing the piano, eating in and out, going "Dahntahn," and, of course, chatting and laughing. You hold a special place in my heart. I love you.~margy
