Corinne "Corky" Joy (Cashdollar) Neff

MAR 8, 1958 - APR 24, 2024

Corinne "Corky" Neff, 66, of Baldwin, following a decade-long battle with cancer, died Wednesday, April 24, 2024, surrounded by loved ones. She was the beloved wife of forty years to Raymond Neff; loving mother of Paul and Patrick Neff; devoted daughter of the late Richard Cashdollar Jr. (Mary Ann) and the late Myrna Colaluca; devoted sister of Richard Cashdollar (Marilyn); Bruce Cashdollar (Pamela); Susan Grandillo (the late Marshall); Tracey Lewis (Joe); and Robert Cashdollar (Melissa); she is also survived by many nieces, nephews, godchildren and their families.

Corky worked for numerous years in the financial services industry, most notably at the Federal Reserve Bank in downtown Pittsburgh, where she met her husband Raymond, and at PNC Bank. In addition to her work, Corky was a longtime active member of Triumph of the Holy Cross Parish (formerly St. Elizabeth of Hungary Parish), where she was a constant volunteer particularly at the church bingo kitchen. Upon retirement, she began volunteering with Meals on Wheels and caring for many neighbors and friends.

In addition to being an excellent wife, mother, sister and friend, Corky will be remembered for her love of birds and for baking her famous "Corky's Chocolate Chip Cookies." She was a true matriarch.

Public visitation will be held on Friday, April 26, from 11:00 AM-2:00 PM and on Saturday, April 27, from 10:00 AM-12:00 PM at Jefferson Memorial Funeral Home, 301 Curry Hollow Road, Pittsburgh, PA 15236. A Mass of Christian Burial will follow at St. Elizabeth of Hungary Church, 1 Grove Place, Pittsburgh, PA 15236 on Saturday, April 27 at 1:00 PM. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the BRCA Foundation or Autism-Pittsburgh.

I've known Corky my entire life. I've laughed with her, cried with her, lost our parents, had our children, talked about life's littlest details and life's crazy twists. Corky was always happy, funny and could be counted on to offer her help in any way to anyone. A world without Corky will always be a world that's missing a little piece of its joy, she will be greatly missed.

I met Corky almost 20 years ago when her and Ray were moving Patrick into college. She was truly a special and loving person. She always brightened our day by sending her famous "Corky cookies" back with Patrick for us to have in the dorm. After college she always welcome me to her house like I was family for visits or holidays. Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord - the world has lost a good one.

My friend. I meet Corky in 9th grade at South Park High School. Awkward kids, learning our way. We had so much fun, laughed alot, picked Lilac every spring. Oh how we both loved that flower. She worked at the movie theater and I worked at the snack stand at Hills, both our first jobs. We graduated HS and remained friends. Celebrating each other's accomplishments and there through heartache and loss. What a blessing it was to have this amazing spirit, this amazing mother, wife and friend in our lives. You will never be forgotten Corky. You will remain always in my heart ❤️

Corky found out our kids liked captain america, so she made these awesome shields out of cardboard and other craft supplies. Kids still have them and use them. Don't even get us started on "corky cookies". We never didn't have corky cookies. We were neighbors of her son for a few years, she literally had no connection to us outside of that, but always treated us like Neffs. Super special lady, my family is inarguably better off having known and experienced her warm hearted care and joy.
