I had met Keith at the North Versailles flee Market and we became friends talking about sports memorabilia and he brought so much joy to my son's and I with the memorabilia he sold us at a great price and the fact that I'd have him hold stuff for me and he had no problem with that. I was actually looking for him this past Saturday. He made me feel so good being a 52 year old dad that loves sports and memorabilia. I will truly miss seeing him and talking to him. Rest in peace my friend.
