Alice and I were friends, classmates & sorority sisters at West Virginia Wesleyan. We reconnected several years ago and had long phone conversations reminiscing our joys at WVWC and about our lives over the years. We talked about where we lived too, she in FL, and I in HI. She was always so positive about her medical condition when we talked. I shall miss our conversations immensely. My deepest condolences to the family. May the strength of those around you give you all strength at this difficult time. With deepest sympathy and Aloha, Jan Myers McEwan
