Vicky was my Aunt Joyce's best friend. I knew her since I was a child and she was practically another Aunt for me. I will never forget her warmth, good humor and lovely smiling eyes. Thanks, Vicky, for making that awesome ribbon hat for me at my wedding shower :)). See you on the other side!

I will miss my oldest friend. Vickie and I shared so many things,we met in 2nd grade. We became more than friends so we had a great relationship. I went everywhere with her and Delma they were my second family. She was in my wedding and we never lost contact,even when she lived elsewhere. I hate the fact that she was so sick and I didn't get to see her recently, but she knew I loved her. I made sure I told her. She will always be in my heart.
