Charles H. Howarth

NOV 28, 1928 - DEC 4, 2023

Charles H. Howarth, passed away peacefully at the age of 95 on December 4th, 2023. Born in Grindstone, Pennsylvania, on November 28th, 1928, Charles was a beloved husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather, as well as a respected US Steel retiree and a proud US Army veteran of the Korean War Era.

Charles's life was marked by dedication and service, both to his country and his local community. After bravely serving during a pivotal time in history, he returned home to build a life and family while working for US Steel. His tenure there spanned an impressive 38 years, where he was not only a loyal employee but also a pillar of strength and dependability to his colleagues.

Marsha Howarth, Charles's loving wife, was his cherished companion. They built a life together, marked by lasting love and mutual respect. He is survived by his devoted sons, Ronald Howarth and his wife Pamela, Brian Howarth and his wife Tina, and he was preceded in death by his first wife Emily and his son Mark Howarth. Charles's legacy continues through his grandchildren—Sarah Howarth-Dice and her husband Zachary, Daniel Howarth and his wife Emily, and Blair Howarth. His joy was made all the more profound by the laughter and love of his great-grandchildren, Marielle, Sadie, and Theo Howarth.

Charles was the son of the late Fred and Georgia Howarth and was the last surviving sibling, preceded by Elizabeth, Leona, William, Thomas, and Fred. Each family member left an indelible mark on his life, and his memory will forever be treasured by those who knew him as the family's steadfast foundation.

As a member of the Masons, Charles found fraternal brotherhood and community service opportunities that reflected his values. He lived his faith actively, contributing his time and talents as a longtime Elder and Treasurer at the Grindstone Christian Church. Charles's leadership and generosity played a significant role in the church's growth and the nurturing of its congregation.
