Rosemarie Ann Einloth, born on October 7, 1934, in Pittsburgh, PA, passed away peacefully on September 25, 2023. She was a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, and friend, known for her warm personality and love for her family.

Rosemarie was born to the late John and Cecelia Gosliak and was the sister to Robert Gosliak and Nancy Geraci. She was preceded in death by her sister Cecelia "Sis" Lenzi and her husband, William Andrew Einloth. Rosemarie was the proud mother of five children: Deborah (Lou) Rankin, Janet (Marshall) Einloth, William (Nancy Engle) Einloth, Mark (Donna) Einloth and Linda (Lester) Voit. She was also a cherished grandmother to Cassandra Rankin, Lou Rankin, Jonathan Rankin, Stephen (Valarie) Supinski, Jonathan Supinski, Megann (Kyle) Warren, Benjamin (Hannah) DiPietrantonio, Crystal (Steve) Costantino, Amber (Ryan) Nix, Tyler Voit; as well as several great-grandchildren.

A graduate of Clairton High School, Rosemarie began her career as a cashier at Kroger. She later retired from Princess Lanes, where she worked at the front desk. Her outgoing personality and love for people made her a favorite among customers and colleagues. Her generous spirit also led her to volunteer at the Infusion Center at St. Clair Hospital, where she assisted patients during their treatments, providing comfort and companionship.

Rosemarie had a zest for life and a love for travel. She particularly cherished her cruise to Rome, a trip that left her with many fond memories. She also had a passion for the arts and enjoyed going downtown to see plays and shows. However, her greatest joy came from spending time with her grandchildren. She loved their company and took immense pride in their accomplishments.

Throughout her life, Rosemarie exemplified the qualities of kindness, generosity, and love. Her warm spirit touched everyone she met, and her memory will continue to inspire those who knew her. She will be deeply missed, but her legacy will live on in the hearts of her family and friends.

When I was 12 my mother met my stepfather and I was fortunate to gain a 5th grandparent. Grandma Rose passed away yesterday and as I sit alone I struggle to think of the words to express what is going through my head. She was there for my high school graduation as well as college. So many Christmas, and Thanksgiving dinners. She truly was a bonus grandparent and I was lucky. With her passing I no longer have any grandparents and that makes me sad, but I am blessed because I had and knew 5 grandparents in my life. I can attest that she was always a kind lady and so happy to see me or any of her grandkids. I know she was not the type to want to dwell on sadness so while I am sad I will try to remember the fried chicken, bowling, and smile she shared. I love you grandma Rose thank you for accepting me as a grandkid for 28 years.

I'm very sorry for the loss of your mother. Memories serve as a treasured gift. As you reminisce may the memories you hold dear bring you comfort. The promise at Acts 24:15 always brings me comfort, I hope it does for you also. With my deepest sympathy.
