So sorry for your loss of a great man. I know he is with God and even though I haven't seen Kevin in many years I will always remember when him and Tracy came to my house in Ohio and he insisted on cutting my grass and washing my car. He did such a good job at whatever he did including finding a great wife and dearest friend, Tracy. We will always have special memories of Kevin, including that mullet he used to sport. Rest in piece brother.

We went on vacation with Kevin and Tracy to Ocean city and one night we decided to sneak into the pool where they were staying after hours and Kevin got his bathing suit caught in the fence after climbing over so he was just hanging there by his bathing suit we all were laughing so hard we all had to go to the bathroom leaving him there just hanging till we could get back to free him. For the rest of the week he was just known as chain link, What a good sport and great memory and fun times we had. Just don't ask about the hermit crab.

Heck, Robert called him Mark for the first year at camp I think. Is that what the M stood for? Always loved when you guys visited. His dry humor was quite funny, he made you think... He'll really be missed ❤️
