Mainza Mweetwa

JAN 7, 1995 - AUG 12, 2023

Mainza Mweetwa, a beloved son, cousin, friend, and service member, passed away on August 12, 2023, in Pittsburgh, PA. Born on January 7, 1995, in Zambia, Mainza was cherished for his gentle demeanor, friendly spirit, and kind heart.

Mainza was the treasured son of Charity Chitalu Mandona and Biggie Mweetwa. He was a dear nephew and cousin to Siphon Phiri, Luther Mwaanga, Cho Cho Pepala, Ngosa Pepala, Steven Ngandwe and Nkosi Mmembe. These familial bonds, formed in his early life in Zambia, remained strong and influential throughout his life. It was in this loving family that Mainza developed his quiet strength and compassionate nature.

Mainza was a graduate of Baldwin High School, where he first discovered his love for football. His passion for the sport was only matched by his commitment to his studies. Following high school, he earned an associate degree from Indiana University of Pennsylvania (IUP). His education was a source of pride, demonstrating his dedication and determination.

After his schooling, Mainza answered the call to serve his adopted country and joined the US Army Reserve. His service was a testament to his courage and commitment. His fellow service members respected him for his quiet strength and unwavering dedication.

Mainza was also blessed with an amazing circle of loyal and loving friends, with whom he shared many memorable moments, from golf outings to fishing trips. Their camaraderie was marked by laughter, shared secrets, and unwavering support. These friendships that were garnered over time are a blessing to Mainza's family during this time.

A man of diverse interests, Mainza had a deep appreciation for the finer things in life. He and his uncle shared a particular fondness for cigars and cigar cars, a pastime that allowed them to bond over shared experiences and meaningful conversations. Mainza was also a foodie, always eager to explore new culinary experiences. His collection of watches and cologne spoke to his appreciation for style and sophistication.

Maintaining a healthy lifestyle was important to Mainza. He was a regular at the gym, where he enjoyed working out. His discipline in this aspect of his life was indicative of his overall approach – committed, focused, and determined.

Despite his many interests and commitments, Mainza was known as a man of few words. He believed in showing kindness through actions rather than words. His warm smile was his signature, a reflection of his friendly and gentle spirit.

In the wake of his loss, we remember Mainza Mweetwa not only for his achievements and interests but for the person he was. His kindness, gentleness, and friendly nature touched everyone he met. Mainza's life, though cut short, was rich in love, friendship, service, and joy. His spirit will continue to inspire and guide those fortunate enough to have known him.

Family and friends will be received Sunday, August 20th from 4-6 P.M. and Monday, August 21st from 1 P.M. until the time of service at 3 P.M. at Jefferson Memorial Funeral Home, 301 Curry Hollow Road, Pittsburgh PA, 15236.
