Ruth G. Ward

JUL 16, 2023 - JUL 16, 2023

Ruth G. Ward, a loving and devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and sister, passed away peacefully in her home in Pittsburgh, PA, on July 16, 2023, at the age of 89. Ruth's life was defined by her unwavering kindness, her deep faith, and her enduring love for her family.

Born and raised in Pittsburgh, Ruth was a lifelong resident of the city she loved. She was the daughter of the late Charles A. and Edna I., and was predeceased by her brothers, Charles and Norbert. Ruth was the beloved wife of Charles Jay, with whom she shared 55 years of marriage before his passing.

Ruth's primary vocation was that of a homemaker, a role she cherished and took great pride in. She created a home filled with love, warmth, and faith, always ensuring her family was her top priority. The joy she found in her family was evident in the way she spoke of her children and grandchildren, always beaming with pride over their accomplishments.

She is survived by her devoted children, David (Susan) and Diane, and her adored grandsons, Patrick (Lauren) and Brendan (Maddison). She also leaves behind her dear brother Harold (Sandra), along with nieces, nephews, and friends who will miss her deeply.

Ruth was an active and respected member of her community. She served as a past President of the Christian Mother's Board, based out of St. Valentine Church, a role she held with great honor and commitment. Her faith was a cornerstone of her life, and she lived it out not just in words, but in her actions of love and kindness to all she encountered.

Words that best describe Ruth are loving, kind, and faith-filled. Her kindness was infectious, and her gentle spirit was a beacon of light to those who knew her. She was a woman of great faith, her unwavering belief in God an inspiration to all who knew her. Her loving nature was the anchor of her family, providing a sense of comfort and security that will be deeply missed.
