All my growing up years Bob lived next door to my parents Eli and Emma Jane Miller. I have many fond memories of going to Bob and June's house for lots of different things. I watched my first cartoon on their small tv. I remember Bobs laughter as he gave my sister Barb and I a grape soda to go along with watching tv. We attended wedding receptions and parties they had over my growing up yrs. A year ago when visiting my mom I went over to see Bob and he was still such a presence. I will always fondly remember him and his trumpet, his love for garlic and cooking. His smile is unforgettable!

I remember my Grandpa Bob playing the trumpet for me and my brother when we were little and he raised my mom Roseanne TIGHE since she was a baby as his own daughter! She would look at him and gush.... He was a great man! He will be missed.
