Barbara Kohle, "Dave's Mom", met my mom at Jefferson Memorial Hospital. We had tapped a telephone pole and Dave had some minor bruises. My Mom was crying, so Barb joined in, hugged her, and said "It's O.K. If it wasn't your "wonderful" Son driving, it would have been my "Sunshine" driving!!" My mother told this story at every family gathering, for 30+ years. The story's details and descriptions always varied, except one. How touched she was by the compassionate, empathetic, and loving Barbara Kohle.
