I love my Aunt La. She was kind and loving to me as a child, and throughout the years, I always knew she loved me ❤️. I'm grateful to have been one of her flower- girls in her wedding to Uncle Jim. I thought their wedding was very romantic and it seemed like a \"fairy-tale\" wedding to me, since Aunt La fainted when Uncle Jim kissed her!! Of course later in life I found out it may have had to do more with the warm temperature in the church! 😊 When I was younger, I had fun spending nights at Aunt La's house when her daughter Lori was just a few years old. My cousin Anita and I really enjoyed these times together with our Aunt La. later in life I moved away, and I haven't seen Aunt La in person for a long time, but she will always be very special to me and remain at the top of my heart. ❤️. My heartfelt sympathy to Aunt La's children, grandchildren, family and friends. 😞 She will surely be missed 😊
