I had the pleasure of meeting Jim a couple of times. What struck me was his easy-going sense of humor. He could find something funny in lots of situations! What was also clear was how much he loved Katie. It was heartwarming to see them snuggle up to each other! Jim, rest in peace. My sympathies, B. George

We remember Jim best as a little, darling, mischeivious boy, with blond hair and dimples, running after his cousins Jeff, Joanie and Julie Grassell, as we all visited his grandmother Millie's house. We remember him as a happy person, who loved his family and stayed close to them all his life. Paul, no one should lose a child before his time, and we are so sorry for your sorrow. Jim was just a young man, poised to enjoy the fruits of his later years. it is our prayer that his family finds peace and hope in the fact that he is good hands for eternity. God bless the Latkowski Family. Aunt Mary and Uncle Bill Grassell
