I met Luna this past fall and was immediately drawn to her carefree, fun energy. She knew how to make people laugh and was super caring and compassionate. I just learned of her passing and am very sad that such a beacon of light and love is gone from this earth. Luna, thank you for teaching me how to nurture my inner child. Xoxo -Erin E

Luna was such a wonderful, kind, and caring friend. I will miss her so so much. My favorite moments with Luna were when we played music together from high school pit section all the way to improvising and singing in her apartment at state college. I miss her so much
