I will never forget the days playing with \"The Moments\". Billy had some great tips per achieving a complete meal at a wedding, even when the band was not invited to partake. He was quite the foodie.

Sending love and prayers to Aunt Mary Ellen, Julie, Michael, Mark, Michael's son Michael, and their/our whole family. Uncle Billy always emitted great love, kindness, positivity, fun, and music. I hope you all feel the love surrounding you from all of us and that your hearts take some comfort in recalling all of the permanent gifts of the heart left to us by my very cool uncle, a great man, always both loved and loving.

I want to extend my sympathy to the Mahoney family on the passing of husband and father Bill. I didn't know him very well but I feel in my heart that he was a great guy. I know the grief you all are feeling after losing my husband and oldest son in the past two years. I will be thinking of you often and I'm sending love and prayers. God bless you all.
