Roberta I don't have a single incident yet a childhood of memories and adult chatter. I was fortunate to be your next door neighbor. I would knock on your door to see if I could play with Dee Dee. We had lots of fun seeking out the perfect spot on the tile floor to play jacks. I remember grandma was there for visits a lot. Of course peppy was fun to play with. We had fun swinging out back and on occasion flipping the swing set. I remember all the pretty flowers you had along the front. Some of the flowers had this seed pod that we would squeeze. It was fun watching them pop. As we grew up I would try to come over for a visit when I was in town. We had lots of conversations in the living room and on the front porch. I already miss have those conversations when you moved to Diane's house. I will stay in touch with Diane she is a wonderful daughter. Hugs to Bobby and Diane.
