I often think of my neighbors from Bethel Park. Steve and Mary were among our best friends for many years. We had many good times together. Steve was a good man, always willing to help you when you were in need and a hard worker beyond compare. My deepest sympathy to Judy, Stephen, David and his entire family. He is in my prayers. What a wonderful man and an example of how we all should live our lives. Steve gave me my first home in Pittsburgh when I moved here in the early 1980s as I rented an apartment from him. I loved talking to him as well as Mary and was blessed to be in his company at the Lions banquets even years later. Always so proud of his family. Praying all the great memories of he and Mary sustain his family and close friends forever. God Bless!
