I'll never forget growing up with Aunt Alice and Uncle Dave! All the get togethers, vacations and day trips my family, the Davison's, took with them. Aunt Alice was always a calm reflective person who you were comfortable being around. Either laughing with you or conveying her displeasure when we kids were misbehaving. And we occasionally misbehaved. LOLAunt Alice was also one of the most intelligent women I grew up with. Could discuss every topic, read voraciously, enjoyed crossword puzzles and playing MahJong with Annetta. Aunt Alice was also a master when it came to crocheting! We all benefited from this talent.But most of all she was a great mother, aunt and wife who loved her family! Rest In Peace Aunt Alice til we meet again!Love Carol
