With family by her side and loving energy from all that new her, Lois was lifted in the Loving arms of God today. My mom and Lois new on another for 70+ years. First, as co-workers at Bell Telephone. Then, Lois and Roy set up his brother(my Dad) on a blind date with my Mom and they became Sisters. Lois was an extrovert and Mom is an introvert, but they remained close throughout the years. They spoke frequently and visited when they could. You will be deeply missed. All our Love, Mary Ellen and \"The Girls\".
