So sad to hear of Ron's Passing. We met Ron in 2005 when he sold me my Dog Ralphie! We bread our dog Ellie-with one of Ron's dogs! It was a great experience and we developed a life long friendship! I will miss visiting and delivering his favorite Nut Horn cookies and talking for hours! Ron was a kind, gentle, funny man who we loved. May Ron Rest In Peace! I know he is with his mom that he loved dearly and missed so much! When my mom died he spent hours on the phone with me consoling me! I will never forget him he touched my heart❤️ I will pray for him! Love you Ron - I know you are in Paradise! Love Judy and Jeff Pavlinsky

Ron was such a dear friend to my husband and I. He had been a friend for many years. He gave me my first poodle as an adult, Precious, in 1994, and our friendship bloomed from there. I have several of his poodles now and he knew how much we loved them and that they are family to us. I considered Ron like family. He brought such joy to us with all of his wonderful poodles. We would visit him and my husband, Mark, helped him when he needed something done at his home occasionally. We would visit near his birthday and bring him a treat to let him know we were thinking of him. We spoke on the phone, sent cards and letters to him, as well, during the years. Ron will be sadly missed and I cried knowing my friend is now in heaven with his 2 brothers and his dear poodles and dear pup, Frosty. I will miss visiting him and his pups forever. He was a wonderful guy and very kind always. He made us laugh a lot. I never thought he'd leave us, as he always kept himself in good shape and took care of himself. Our deepest condolences to his family and nephew.

Ron was my BFF for more than 60 years. He's was the kindest, most generous and loyal person I've ever known. He had a strong sense of family and responsibility and genuinely cared about all of his friends and family, both 2 and 4 legged. We shared lots of laughs and good times as well as some bad times, too. I will miss you, my friend and my brother, until we meet again. Mary Lou
