My deepest condolences to the family. John lived at Vanadium Woods for a bit, and I am glad to have known him, if even for a short time. He was a very kind man. He reminded me of my own Father, never one to complain even if he was suffering. My heart goes out to all who were close to him. May you have many happy memories to hold on to. Lori Bailey ~ VWV

Wayne was an amazing friend to my Dad, Bob Michel, especially when Dad was dying of pancreatic cancer. He was there at the hospital and hospice with my siblings. At Dad's wake, at the Royal Too, he showed me the bar stools where he and Dad sat together (see picture). I hope Dad and Wayne are dancing together with their friends in Heaven!
