Upa, you were the BEST grandfather a girl could ever ask for. You truly wanted the absolute best for everyone around you. You supported me in every way and in everything i did. I can't remember a sports event, concert, birthday, holiday, or big moment in my life where you and grandma weren't there. You always gave me advice to become the best version of myself. You were so present in my life and I know you wanted the absolute best for me. You were so incredibly positive and kind to all those who got the pleasure of knowing you. I will forever cherish all the times that you watched me and Joseph and let us eat however many oreos we wanted hahaha. And all the Christmas's spent at your house with the entire family! You truly adored the grandkids and we are forever grateful!! Most importantly you always pushed me to be a strong woman and even until the very end you had all of your nurses give me advice in my career when I visited you in the hospital. You have the most genuine soul and I can't wait to be reunited with you again one day!! I love and miss you so much everyday!! Heres a picture of me telling you to dab hahahaha

I couldn't ask for a better grandfather. He was always a loving and supportive man. I could always depend on him to be there for me, whether it was for advice or just simply supporting me at all my sporting events growing up. I am so thankful that he was part my life and that he got to meet my other half, Marcella. We both loved spending time with you on our trips to Pittsburgh. We both love and miss you and are blessed to have had an special person like you in our lives. We know you will be watching over us as we get married in May. We all look forward to seeing you again. Rest In Peace Grandpa. Love, Tyler

I am so lucky to have had you as my Grandpa. You were the only person to ever truly fit that role in my life & I'll always cherish our memories together, whether spent in person or while talking on the phone. You were so fun, loving, always in a good mood, & wished the very best for others, especially your grandkids. You were also so proud & supportive of all 11 of us & we were so blessed to have you as the patriarch of the Wright family. May you now Rest In Peace & continue looking out for us & cheering us on from Heaven. We all hope to make you proud! We love & miss you very much! Love, Kara

Dad was so much more like a great friend and father to me than a father-in-law. I always felt that we could talk about anything at all without judgment or criticism and that always meant the world to me. He was always there to listen and to help in his own caring and supportive way. He always made time for his family and his friends and was such a wonderful grandfather! All of us will truly miss him until we are together, again. I love you, miss you, and wish you eternal rest and peace, Love always, Karla
