Mary Kay was a wonderful person to work with. She was perfection at work and at home. I would periodically check on her cats when she and Joe were away. She always spoke highly of her kids. Joe would bring a brandy soaked cake to Mary Kay and she would share it with us. I was scared to eat it at work. We had fun times sharing our life experiences. On 9/11, I was with Mary Kay in between patients. You always remember where you were on significant days. It's was good to be with a friend. Holly Bitner
