I will miss Kinmy. I'd been texting with her recently and she was as I remembered her when we worked together in person: helpful, responsive, amazingly FUNNY, and just such a good spirit. I cannot imagine the difficulty with which her close friends and family have had to accept her passing and am so very sorry for this premature and painful loss.

Kim was the type of leader you never heard a bad word about. During my first 1x1 after being assigned to her team it was easy to see why. Kim was fiercely passionate about both the impact of the work and about taking care of her people. She was someone I equally deeply respected and had so much fun working with. The laughs, wisdom, and memories shared in our Kim Squared Connects will always stay with me. Sending love and light to her family and loved ones during this unthinkable time.

Kim was a loving, selfless and fiercely dedicated individual. She will be remembered most for the care she invested in every part of her life: her friends, her family, her colleagues, her faith, and anyone or anything that she could offer her support. Kim was a member of our Cleveland Clinic Administrative Fellowship class from 2014-15. For each of us, the Cleveland Clinic was our first post-graduate job and we quickly formed a close bond. During that time, we leaned on each other often as we looked to navigate a complex organization, a new city and our early careers. Kim was a leader, and she set the tone for our group in a number of ways; especially through her work ethic and generosity. Kim was the first person in the office each morning and could regularly be found reading and rewriting meticulously crafted project plans. She would also find other ways to give and would often organize volunteer opportunities for the rest of us to participate in outside of work. When we would occasionally wrestle her attention towards more trivial matters, with bribes of playtime with dogs or watching her beloved Pittsburgh Penguins, she was still only ever focused on hearing about you. Kim's love for her family and home community was absolute, and so, it came as no surprise when she moved back to Pittsburgh after two years in Cleveland. When we would reconnect over the years, her joy at her ability to live in Pittsburgh and contribute to the welfare of her community was so apparent that you couldn't help but share in that joy with her. Kim will always be a loved member of our fellowship family and we will miss her dearly. Our deepest sympathies go out to her family, friends, and loved ones. Andrew, Deanna, Jay, Josh and Vivian
