Wally was a former ninth grade student of mine at Bethel Park High School, a bowling teammate at Bowling City and, more importantly, a lifelong friend. We had some heart-to-heart talks over an occasional beer, laughed, and reminisced about Billy getting through my ninth grade English class. A more friendly, compassionate, caring, and genuine person would be hard to find. My prayers and heartfelt condolences are with Wally, his loving wife Debbie, and two kids as they grieve his loss. May the perpetual and eternal light of God shine brightly and forever on his soul. Rest in peace, my student and friend. Mike Bonacci

Life is fleeting but our friendship lasts forever. Beyond death, he lives in our hearts and minds. He is so far away and yet so close to us forever. We are grateful to have met him on our way through life. In the night under the star tent and in broad daylight he now rests! Memories are little stars that shine comfortingly in the darkness of our grief Your friends from Germany Madlen Frank, Stefanie and Klaus Derksen 🙏🙏
