Dear Carol: You were always so devoted to your Mother all these years and she certainly had a long, long life. You will miss her, no doubt, but you should not have any regrets. Love and prayers to you.

I am so sorry to know of Dee's passing. I loved her humor and good nature. She was one in a million. My thoughts and prayers go out to Carol, David, Janet and Mike. She leaves many happy memories of dinner with her and a little nip now and then. She welcomed anyone into her home at any time. God be with all of your family. Love. Mary
