Please accept my sincerest condolences on the loss of your Mom and Grandmother. She was a gentle soul and a very loving giving woman. May the love you shared and your memories provide comfort as you travel this road of grief. When I came home from my Sister's funeral April 18th in New Mexico she had sent me a beautiful card with comforting words I was saddened to hear of her passing. God Bless each and every one of you. Maria and I shared memories of growing up in the little town of Clymer, PA. we also shared the same job titles as we worked our Technician jobs. Who would of ever thought that in the big city of Pittsburgh our children Stephen and Leah would meet each other and get married and have such a beautiful family. RIP Maria Our sincerest condolences to the Mangino family and friends. Mr.&Mrs. Henry Hobart & family Mrs. Shirley Hobart
