James Anthony Marasco, age 62, of South Park, formerly of Oakland, passed away after losing his fight with pancreatic cancer on April 13, 2021.

Jim is survived by his beloved wife of 26 years, Vicki Veto Marasco; cousin, Richard (Janet) Bardsley; mother-in-law and father-in-law, Ann and Joseph Veto; sisters-in-law, Valerie (Michael) Shisler and Joanne Veto; brother-in-law, Paul Veto; nieces, Jessica Shisler, Lauren Shisler, Kristen Shisler; as well as many friends.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Mary Louise Marasco; his nan, Anna Keating; and uncle, James Keating.

Jim was easy going, caring, gentle, kind and always ready to help his friends. Anyone who knew Jim knew he really loved his Pittsburgh Penguins and all things Irish. I am blessed to have many memories of Jim. One of my favorites is from my 50th birthday party a year and a half ago. We had a Woodstock theme and he and Vicki came in full gear. Another is from their 25th wedding anniversary where he laid a kiss on her... it just showed his deep love for her and I'm so happy to have been able to share those and many others. Kind, funny and so friendly...I am so sad that I will not be able to make more memories with him. With love and sincere condolences,
