Where do I even begin to describe the journey I have been Blessed with to have had with John. He was my HS Sweetheart and Prom Date...he melted me. I remember in 1979 I had all 4 of my Wisdom Teeth removed and my face, oddly in retrospect, kind of looked like a basketball, and he came to visit me at my home. I was so embarrassed but he said, \"hey Z, you'll always be beautiful to me.\" And that was it, I knew we would be friends for Life! Our relationship over the past year had quietly developed into a deep and personal challenge of human resiliency. We spoke often when one or the other wasn't hospitalized for one EMERGENCY after another. We laughed a lot. We cried. We listened. We sat in silence at times just to know someone else was there when fear trickled in. I loved John. I love John. I will ALWAYS LOVE JOHN❤️ OF Course I will miss Whitt, THE LEGEND! He was the only one who never saw that part of himself, sadly. I will continue to carry you in my heart, John 😞 Until we meet again, Z
