I remember when Uncle Jonny and Aunt JoAnne came out to visit for their 25th wedding anniversary. Mom (Eileen) and I drove to Las Vegas to meet them. It was my first time in Vegas, and I can't imagine a better person with whom to share that experience. JoAnne was in awe of everything we saw, and oh, how we laughed. We went to mass at the Catholic Church there, and behind the altar, instead of a traditional cross, was this HUGE mural of Jesus soaring up to heaven like he was a kite. Mom, JoAnne, and I were so fixated on that mural (and making each other laugh) that we missed the whole service. Then we drove them back to California and had such a good time. And all the visits as young kids to Pittsburgh, though they feel like a lifetime ago, I will always remember Aunt JoAnne and her fun, genuinely sweet personality. Rest In Peace, sweet Auntie. Love, Jenny xoxo

To my dear Uncle Jon and my cousins, I am so sad and sorry. The one tiny solace is that she is in heaven with Eileen, Flo and Teena and they are rekindling their good times together. Aunt JoAnne was the most FUN person to be with. She was pure joy and her sense of humor brought hilarity to every story and situation. I will forever be grateful to her for coming out to CA when my mom (Eileen) died. She was interested in every detail of our life, including asking about our doggies - and I will miss our long phone conversations. Her love and joy will remain with all of us. May her spirit heal the emptiness we feel. Love and prayers to you Uncle Jon and cousins. Love, Sue and Frank
