Betty Shew Hattman

NOV 13, 1926 - MAR 11, 2021

Betty Shew Hattman, of Cranberry Township, formerly a 45-year resident of Moon Township, on March 11, 2021. Loving wife of 66 years of the late Harold McDonald Hattman; loving mother of Susan Hattman Walsh (Tommy) and Kristine Hattman (Jon Hamrahi); devoted grandmother of Meghan and Maureen Walsh.

Preceded in death by parents Nila Cook Shew and Louis Alvord Shew; brothers Louis A. Shew Jr. and Henry W. Shew. Survived by sisters-in-law Mary Jane Hattman Nagel and Martha I. Hattman; niece Ginny Lou Shew Thorp; nephews Arras Hattman and David, Dennis and Richard Kisow.

Best friend of 80 years Virginia Barker Moore, and long-time friends Mary Balph Chavern and Jean MacGregor.

Graduated from Dormont High School and the University of Pittsburgh, where she was a proud member of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. In January 2021, she was recognized for 75 years of membership. First employed as an employment interviewer at Kaufmann's Department Store in Pittsburgh. She left to have a family, then later attended Duquesne University for post-graduate study, earning a teaching certificate in special education.

Employed 11 years as a teacher at the Western Hills Special School in Moon Township. Later, she joined her husband in his business, Hattman Sales, Inc., as secretary/treasurer.

Betty's greatest love was her dear daughters, Susan and Kristine, and her much adored granddaughters, Meghan and Maureen. Her happiest moments were spending time with her two granddaughters and watching them grow into lovely young women.

Betty had numerous long-lasting friendships and was a good friend to many. She kept in touch with her cherished friends from high school, college, sorority, work, church, and neighborhood. She enjoyed luncheons with friends, travel, reading, fashion, classical music, yoga, crossword puzzles, and board games. She and husband Harold were excellent dancers and enjoyed many years of jitterbug and swing dancing. She was a long-time member of Sharon Presbyterian Church in Moon Township, where she served as wedding consultant.

As an employee of Kaufmann's, Betty became interested in fashion. Her appearance was important to her and she was always immaculately dressed and neatly groomed. A high school friend stated, "Betty always looked like she stepped out of 'Vogue.'"

Her cherished family and life-long friends were closest to her heart.

Memorial contributions may be made in Betty's name to Sharon Presbyterian Church, 522 Carnot Road, Moon Township, PA 15108, Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation Scholarship Fund, 8740 Founders Road, Indianapolis, IN 46268 or charity of choice.

A private family service will be held at a later date. Burial will take place at Jefferson Memorial Park in Pleasant Hills.
