Margaret J. Dickey

DEC 17, 1919 - JAN 30, 2021

Margaret J. Dickey, 101, formerly of Kingston, died January 30, 2021, in Pittsburgh, PA of natural causes. Born in Kingston, she was the daughter of the late Lula and Daniel Moser and was married to Nicholas Dickey for 55 years until his death in 2005. She was the graduate of Kingston High School. Mrs. Dickey was a member of the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, Kingston. Preceding her in death were her brothers George and Raymond Moser; sisters, Thelma Fletcher, Florence Parker, Ellen Tubman and Dorothy Baker.

Surviving are her daughters Carole Dickey and her husband, Frederic Serino of Pittsburgh; Nancy Koval and her husband, Joseph of Allentown; grandsons Frank Daniel Serino (and his partner Robby Syruws) and Nicholas Serino (and his fiancée, Samantha Kosko); granddaughters Juliann Masenheimer (and her husband, Matthew); Kate Koval (and her partner Cliff Minnig); as well as two great-grandchildren, numerous nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Dickey lived a long and active life until COVID-19 forced her into isolation and quarantine at her senior living facility. She never had the virus, but her passing was, nevertheless, a result of the pandemic.

Funeral Services via Zoom are private and been entrusted to the care of Jefferson Memorial Funeral Home, Inc., 301 Curry Hollow Road, Pleasant Hills. In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation in memory of Margaret to Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, 813 Wyoming Ave., Kingston, PA 18704. I am so sorry for your loss. Your mother was a dear friend of my mother-in-law, Tina Macario, who met her at Tiffany Court. Tina sends her condolences and said she will hold Peggy in her prayers. My father was Jim Nicholas, who directed you in the musical Brigadoon. The photos are still in my mother's home in Kingston. I'm including some photos. Again, I'm very sorry for your loss. May your mother's memory be a blessing.

Nancy and Carol, what an honor to have know your mom for 65years. There are many studio memories and then the memories of your mom and dad and my mom and dad so many years ago. Seeing Peg in the nursing home in Kingston was always part of our yearly visit to Eastern Pa. in June. I am also happy that we were able to see her here in the Pittsburgh area a couple of times before the pandemic shut visitation down. She was very proud of her girls and her grandchildren. Seeing the family photo album was always part of our visits. May you cherish her memory. Jeanmarie and Dick Harding

Carole, Nancy and family, so sorry to her of your mom's passing, she and your dad were such great people, I have such great memories of spening Christmas evenings at their home in Kingston. Right up to the time my mom passed, she would always talk about your family and extended family and all the good memories she had. Jeanine Beny Plitt.
