Butch and I extend our deepest and sincere sympathy to the entire family. We hope you find comfort with each other and continue to hold onto her memory. Chrissy was never ever miserable! She loved her family so much, and enjoyed being around her friends! She was one helluva bowler and taught me a few tricks at the poker machine! She lived everyday to the fullest, enjoying all that life gave her. I still remember her hitting the first ball at the golf outing.... bam, 2 inches she laughed said oh well! She would tell me how she loved all of you equally and was so proud of what you all have done with your lives. She adored her grandchildren and would give anyone sitting next to her an update whether you wanted to know or not. loved that about her I hope you can rest your head on that pillow and know that you were SO good to her! She was loved by ALL of you, included in your functions and was an all around fun person. I personally will miss her so very much, but am blessed to have known her for this length of time. She wasn't just classy....she was ELEGANT!

I just wanted to share my memories of Chris. I always looked forward to when she would come for a visit to Andrea and Sals. I could always count on having many laughs with her while she was sharing many funny stories about her children when they were growing up and her driving mishaps lol...she was such a special woman and was a true gem; she will be greatly missed.... Love fondly, Chris Thwaites
