Virginia M. Fife

JUL 19, 1937 - NOV 14, 2020

Virginia M. Fife passed away peacefully in San Jose, CA on November 14, 2020 at the age of 83. Lovingly referred to by her family as “Gangster Grams”, a conscious misnomer as she didn’t have a single bad bone in her body, she is survived by her daughters Susan Lozinski and Dana Ramsey, son-in-law Andrew Lozinski, grandchildren Nolan and Hannah Lozinski, and her brother John Gottschall. Being an intensely competitive individual, she will certainly be applying for spots on heaven’s golf, bowling, or bocce leagues. Virginia will be laid to rest next to her late husband Don in Pittsburgh, PA. Arrangements made by JEFFERSON MEMORIAL FUNERAL HOME, INC., 301 Curry Hollow Rd., Pleasant Hills, 15236. I was so sorry to hear about your Mom. She and your Dad were quite a team, and great parents and grandparents. I will miss getting my Christmas note from her and getting caught up on your lives and especially all the news about Nolan and Hannah. Jack and I looked forward to your visits to Pittsburgh and spending time catching up with everyone. You are so right about your Mom and her golfing. I am sure she is in Heaven putting together a golf group, and if they allow betting there, I think a few angels will be missing their wings. I will pray for her and for you. Should you come back to Pittsburgh, please know we will have the light on for you. Love to all, Dian Fife Perkins
