Most sincere condolences to Gary's wife, children, and all of his family. Gary was an amazing CO who always performed his duties far above what was expected. He was quite a funny guy as well and always had a humorous story to tell. I was fortunate enough to have sampled some of his homemade, award winning wine several times. I'd always tell him that it tasted like King Solomon's, at 79 cents a quart. May his family find comfort in the memories that he leaves behind.
