Nancy & I have been best friends since kindergarten. She was my maid of honor at my wedding. I remember when her daughter was born. We have kept in touch all these years even though I moved to New Jersey. She always checked in with me and always remembered my birthday. I last saw her last April when she was in Pittsburgh and I was there to visit my father. She was a great friend and I will really miss her. I still can't believe she is gone.
