I only knew Marissa for a short time before she passed, but she made such an impression on my heart. I feel so sad and it's difficult to accept that that infectious smile and great laugh aren't here. She dreamed of raising her beautiful daughter and just wanted to hug her! I am so very, very sorry for your very tragic loss. You are in my thoughts....

Bill, Donna and Derek. My heart is broken for all of you and sweet Abrielle. But I know that Marissa is at peace and resting in the arms of Jesus. Please know that Ron and I are here for you and will do anything you need. All you have to do is ask. Please be at peace knowing that Marissa suffers no more. Praying for you continually. We love you so very much, Ron and Cheri
