I lived on Ardsley and played with Nancy and her brothers when we were little kids. He was such a sweet gentleman, and good father. I remember him so often playing catch with Jim and Jeff on the street when we were kids. One summer I was about to knock on their door to see if Nancy could play, but I stopped when I saw him dancing with his wife in the living room in the middle of the day! I thought he was very romantic! He took good care of his family and was just a good man. We wish we could be there with you at this sad time, but we understand it's for the best. I'm sure he will be missed by all of his family. My condolences to all! Nancy (Marks) and Larry Welsh
