I worked with Russell for many years at 88 Transit. We made plans for lunch many times but never got around to it. I miss talking about the good ole times. I knew Glen Lancaster too.

I am so am sorry to here of Russ' passing. My dad, Glen Lancaster, and Russ were good friends. After my dad's death in 1995, Russ and I kept in regular contact until I moved from Carrick in Pittsburgh in 2000. In 1998 we traveled to England for 3 weeks. We stayed with my sister, Doris, and toured the old World War 2 air fields near where she lived.
