Raymond G. Caporali, Sr.

OCT 29, 1943 - DEC 2, 2019

Raymond G. Caporali, Sr., 76, of South Park, formerly of Carnegie, passed away peacefully on Monday, December 2, 2019. Beloved and loving husband of 54 years to Evelyn (Naughton). Father to Debbie (Joe) Kubiak, Michelle (Mike) Clemens and Ray Caporali, Jr. Loving PapPap to Michael, Amber and Ashley Kubiak, Nicholas and Sarah Clemens, and Tiffany Caporali. Brother of Pete (Darlene) Caporali. Son of the late Amedeo and Theresa (Celli). Brother-in-law to Faith Lee Saber, Ellen (Rich) McGuire, Lauralee Webster, George Naughton, Mary Jean (Doug) Fleming and Grace Naughton, plus uncle to many nieces and nephews. Ray served in the Navy for three years and was a policeman for the Allegheny County Police Department for twenty-nine years. Ray's pride and joy was his family, and he was especially proud of his grandchildren. With his quirky sense of humor and "gift of gab," Ray endeared himself to many. Despite a number of health setbacks, Ray never got discouraged or quit fighting, and he bounced back time and again. The family would like to acknowledge and thank the wonderful doctors, nurses and aides who provided excellent care for him at St. Clair Hospital. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to "Saddle Up" in care of Sandy Smith, 103 Pat Mews Drive, Wilmerding, PA 15148, and will be used to purchase or sponsor a horse for the Allegheny County Police Department's Mounted Patrol Unit, of which Ray was the officer in charge until his retirement in 1996. Visitation will be held on Thursday, December 5, 2019 from 2-4pm and 6-8pm and Friday, December 6, 2019 from 2-4pm and 6-8pm at the JEFFERSON MEMORIAL FUNERAL HOME, INC., 301 Curry Hollow Road, Pittsburgh, PA 15236. Mass of Christian Burial will be held Saturday, December 7, 2019 at 10am at Saint Germaine Parish, 7003 Baptist Road, Bethel Park, PA 15102.

Eve, Debbie, Michelle and little Ray, Your husband and father meant so much to Junior and me through the years since 1984. When Junior passed Ray stepped in to help me with repairs around the house, groceries and with Gabby. There are way too many wonderful memories to list them all. I'm so terribly sorry for your loss. He is out of pain and with the lord now. Love all of you 🙏🙏

I am so sorry Michelle, to learn of the loss of your dad. Please accept my very deepest condolences. I would like to extend my condolences to Mrs. Caporali, and the rest of the family, as well. While I never personally met your dad, whenever you spoke of him, you did so with great pride. It is humbly apparent that he is loved, very much. During sad times like this, I hope you and your family draw comfort from God's word the Bible, which promises us at Rev. 21:4: "And he [God] will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." This helps us to see that that death, is not a part of life—because why would God promise . . . to do away with it? The scripture also speaks of doing away with mourning, outcry, and pain here on earth—because are these conditions that exist in heaven? I sincerely hope this scripture gives your family the comfort it has given mine, and again, my very deepest condolences to those who love and cherish your dad.
