Patricia Grden posted:

Stan Wilmot was my dad. He was the ultimate gentleman. He was an honorable man. He was almost 96 years old at his death. He lived a good life, with the love of family all around him. He was always at my various concerts in which I played clarinet. Especially at Christmastime. The upcoming season is going to be extremely difficult for me to perform, but I will, as this is what I know he would want me to do. I learned to play clarinet for my dad, because I wanted to please him through the music I knew he loved.
