What can I say about Bill. He's been a prominent figure throughout my entire life. More like a big brother than a brother-in-law. Some awesome memories playing football at the field at Transfers Park, playing toy soldiers and marbles on the living room floor during Christmas, and drive-in movies when I was just a little kid. His dedication to his family was always impressive and that booming laugh is what I'll remember most. God bless you Bill Shawhan, hope you're in a better place. With Love , Big Billy
