I met Larry at the Pymatuning Spillway when I saw he had the same Harley Davidson trike as me. Over time his friendship became brothers. I remember all the lunches he and I went to (2 hot dogs and fries for Larry). I will miss Larry. Luv ya brother.

Larry was a neighbor, friend and classmate. His was the only voice I heard at graduation and only friendly face at a class reunion. He lived behind my Dad's house and garden. My husband lived next door to my Dad and had a pool. Larry watched him trying to clean his pool liner then suggested taking it to the car wash; where they got it clean. Our kids rode Power Wheels together in the back alley. He also supported by brother Frank while growing up. He will be missed.
