John was a fraternity brother and Friend since 1975. His quick wit, infectious laughter and great intellect kept our correspondences lively. We got together for baseball, annual dinners with other Fraternity friends and his knowledge of stock investing was unrivaled. His generosity to Alpha Sigma Phi established our emergency fund and kick started a restoration program at the house at Westminster College. I will greatly miss our weekly emails, our talks about life and politics and the growth mentally as we discussed history, faith and whatever caught our fancy. I will miss him until my time in Heaven.
