I so fondly remember David from our childhood summers. While often visiting my Aunt Flo, David and I had so much fun. He helped me tag along and get into the games with all of the other kids, many of whom were my cousins. As we both grew up, I'll always remember his quick wit that made everyone laugh. The world needs more of what David shared through his life. In memory, Cousin Jim White

We make friends in life, but there is that one special friend who defines brotherly love... That was my buddy Dave. Our paths crossed over forty years ago and we remained friends since... Dave watched my children grow up and they called him Uncle Dave. The boys and I went to the range yesterday to meet Camper Dave as he planned to be there..... And he was there because he is in every memorie of past range days. Fair winds Buddy and see you later! Thanks for the memorles....
