I knew Betty through the Schoolhouse Arts Center. She was a dedicated member and very helpful to newer members. She was gracious to all and it was a joy to know her and work with her!

We are so saddened by the passing of Betty. You have our heartfelt sympathy. We always enjoyed her company at family gatherings and the many Thanksgiving dinners. We miss Ernie too, but now they can be together again. There are no words that we know of to ease the pain of grief. Maybe if we hold tight to the memories of Betty and Ernie then other joys and hopes will lighten the weight of the sorrow we carry. We should look for comfort knowing that both Betty and Ernie are being held close by God. We will send a remembrance of them to Ruthfred Lutheran Church as we know that their faith and that church has been so very important to them. May you all have God's peace. Jim, Teri and the Sander family.
