I am sorry to just her about Ron's passing. He worked with my father for many years at USS and was my dad's best friend. I remember him coming over to our house after work and having a beer or two with my dad back in the '60's. I always looked forward to him coming over even as a small child. In the early '70's my father talked him into going to Maine with him and we all drove up including Greg and Jamie. We stayed for almost two weeks and had a great time fishing and laughing. There have been at least a half a dozen trips up there since and Ron loved it there as much as my dad. My father passed two years ago and now they're both gone. All of the memories I have of both of them enjoying Maine will stay with me all of my life.

My deepest condolences to your family. The Bible is a great source of encouragement, because in God's word you will find this comforting promise at John 5:28, \"Those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice (Jesus) and come out. By means of an earthly resurrection, you will be reunited with your loved one to share more wonderful times together again. {To learn more about the Resurrection Hope that Jehovah God (Psalms 83:18) has promised: Visit JW.Org - Bible Teachings - Bible Questions Answered - What is the Resurrection Hope?} My deepest heartfelt sympathies to your family for the death of your loved one.
