It has been close to 20 years since I last saw Maxine, but my memories of her coincide with Tina Mac's words about one of my beautiful Pleasant Hills friends. Heaven is even now a much better place with her presence.

My heartfelt sympathies go out to the family and friends. May you find some comfort in the promise found in Revelation 21: 3-4 and 1 Thessalonians 4:14. Knowing that there is an opportunity to be reunited with loved ones.

My deepest sympathy to a favorite co-worker from AT&T. We used to talk all the time about Las Vegas and Atlantic City and our love of gambling and slot machines. You will be missed.

There are no words that I could even express how we all feel about the loss of our best friend, Max. She was the kindest, sweetest, non judgemental person you could ever meet. If you were a friend, no matter what, you would always be her friend. Max was a person who helped everyone who needed it without question. She will truly be missed. RIP my dear friend, We Love You.. 😞

There are no words that I could even express from the loss of my best friend. She was the kindest, most caring person anyone could meet. If Max was your friend, you were her friend forever. She never had a bad word to say about anyone, and would go to the extreme to give a helping hand. You will truly be missed my dear friend.
